County, a respectable and credible person, aged eighty three years who being duly sworn, deposed and saith, that during the Revolutionary War, he was a resident of Dobbs County, North Carolina, a member of the family of Nathan Arundall, that during said War the said Nathan Arundall was drafted twice to serve in said War, & that he thinks each of those drafts were for the space of one year, & that he also thinks he served under ~~the~~ Captain Cobb, & Colonel Caswell, that in addition to his services as a drafted soldier, he was also engaged in several tours against the Tories, but does not know how long, that during the period for which he was last drafted, or at the expiration of the same, he was brought home ~~by~~ was then called a cart, being incapable of walking or riding on account of an attack of the Rheumatism, which occurred during that service, that he after a time partially recovered of that disease, but was never sound afterwards, that after the close of the War, he removed to Elbert County Georgia, where he ~~remained~~ and married Susanna Janin daughter of Laughlin Janin

On this the 6th day of July in the year 1855, before me a Justice of the Peace in and for said County and State personally appeared George Guber aged eighty four years a resident of the County and State aforesaid, who after being sworn in due form of the law, makes the following statements: That he moved from Granville Co. N. Carolina in the year 1799, and settled in Franklin Co. Georgia and immediately became well acquainted with Nathan Arundell who was at that ^{time} living with his family in said County & State, that from that time (1799) this defendant lived near the said Arundell and had much intercourse with him and his family until his death, and with his family since his death until now. That he always understood from said Arundell and from every body who knew any thing about it, that he had come from North Carolina, where in time of the Revolutionary war he had served as a private soldier in the Militia of said State, that during his acquaintance with said Arundell he often heard him speak of his services in the Revolutionary war, and heard him talk a great deal about his skirmishes with the Tories. That at that time there were a good many old Revolutionary soldiers living in Franklin County, and that said Arundell was regarded and respected by them all as having been a true patriot and a soldier in said war, and that he never heard a contrary opinion expressed by any one. That from defendant's first acquaintance with said Arundell, he was afflicted with Rheumatism.

that he always understood from Ann, and his friends all so understood it. that he had contracted said disease while in the Revolutionary service, that he had to go about on crutches, and that he was never relieved from this disease while he lived, but was always a cripple.
That at the time of his first acquaintance said Arundel and his family, he and his reputed wife Susannah were living together as husband and wife and under good reports, and had at that time (1799) five living children to wit Rebecca, Winifred, John, Laughlin and Elizabeth, the oldest of whom was then eight or nine years of age.

That from all that he ever heard of the said Nathan Arundel from the old people of that early day he fully believed and always did believe he was a faithful soldier of the Revolution of N. Carolina, and that he and his reputed wife Susannah were lawful husband and wife, that her name before marriage was Susannah Fanning, that he was personally acquainted with her parents, that the said Arundel died in Franklin County Georgia about the year 1823, that his widow survived and remained his widow until her death, that she died in said County & State in the year 1845, and that, he is a disinterested witness,

NATHAN ARENDALL
R. 243
BA-J/ANF:MLB

Dear Madam:

You are furnished herein the record of Nathan Arendall as found in pension claim, R. 243, based upon his service in the Revolutionary War.

The date and place of birth and names of the parents of Nathan Arendall are not shown.

Nathan Arendall served fifty-nine days as a private in 1776, in Captain Cobb's company, Colonel Caswell's North Carolina regiment. At the time of his enlistment, he was a resident of Dobbs County, North Carolina.

The soldier married about the year, 1790, in Elbert County, Georgia, Susannah Fannin or Fannin, daughter of Laughlin Fannin or Fannin. The date and place of her birth and name of her mother not shown. The soldier died April 13, 1822, or in 1823, in Franklin County, Georgia, and his widow, Susannah, died July 13, 1845, in said Franklin County.

Their children were: Rebecca born in 1795; Winifred; John aged fifty-six years in 1822; Elizabeth; Laughlin, and William who died about the year 1803.

John Arendall applied June 5, 1862, in Franklin County, Georgia, for pension which might have been due on account of the services of his father, Nathan Arendall. He applied in behalf of himself and other surviving heirs named above.

The claim was not allowed as he failed to furnish proof of six months' service as required by the pension law.

Very truly yours
