

SALOOM—Charles Albert, 66, 114 Main Street, Franklin Borough, died Aug. 27, 1966, at Bashline Memorial Hospital, Grove City. Born Sept. 22, 1899, in Amyoun, Lebanon, son of Albert and Futin (Asey) Saloom. Preceded in death by parents, brother and sister. Survived by widow, former Selma Hamaty, and these children: Dr. Raymond J., Harrisville, Pa.; Marie Louise, wife of L. J. Gober, Alexandria, Va.; Josephine, wife of Robert Colbert, Franklin Borough; Lillian, wife of George Stanton, South Bend, Ind., and Janet, Washington, D. C.; also 14 grandchildren. Brother of George, Mt. Pleasant, Pa.; A. A. Salloum, Boston; Samuel, Argentina, and Mrs. Tarfa Risig and Mrs. Budra Ghantous, both of Lebanon. Member of St. Mary's Syrian Orthodox Church; Aerie 1811, Conemaugh Eagles, Conemaugh-Franklin Lions Club, Conemaugh - Franklin Legion Post 633, and was an Army veteran of World War 1. Family will receive friends from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m. Monday at The Picking Mortuary. Funeral service at 1 p. m. Tuesday at St. Mary's Syrian Orthodox Church, the Rev. Gabriel Ramlaoui, and the Rev. George Nasser. Interment, Grandview Cemetery.